Re: USITC Freedom of Information Act Request 19-29

Dear Mr. Amarel:

This letter serves as the U.S. International Trade Commission's ("USITC") final response to your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), dated August 5, 2019, and received August 22, 2019, in which you requested "All emails sent to, from, or copied to: Jason Kearns, from January 1, 2016 to Present Day containing any of the following non-case-sensitive key-string "liberals", "Kushner", "Giuliani", "Mastroianni", "Elliott Broidy", "Mark Siffin", "EB-5", "George Nadar", "Erik Prince", "alias" "FOIA", Israel" or "whistleblower"."

We have found documents responsive to your request and they are enclosed. We made redactions to the documents pursuant to Exemption 5 of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) and Exemption 6 of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). Exemption 5 pertains to information that is subject to privilege. Exemption 6 protects from disclosure information about individuals when the disclosure of such information "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy." Finally, I have determined that 58 pages should be withheld-in-full pursuant to Exemption 5.

Therefore, your FOIA request is granted-in-part.

If you are not satisfied with the response to your request, you may file an administrative appeal. If you decide to do so, your appeal must be received within 90 days of the date of this letter. It should be addressed to the Chairman, United States International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, and clearly indicate both on the envelope and in the letter that it is a "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." It should clearly state the grounds upon which you believe this denial of access to be in error. For further information on appeal procedures, see 19 CFR 201.18, attached.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, MD 20740; E-mail: ogis@nara.gov Telephone: 202-741-5770; Fax: 202-741-5769; Toll-free: 1-877-684-6448.

If you have any questions, relating to the processing of your request, please feel free to contact me at 202-205-2595 or william.bishop@usitc.gov.

Sincerely,
